

Marlinton, West Vi

CHURCH BURNED

The fine big Presbyterian Church at Cass burned down Tuesday afternoon. The building is about a total loss. Much of the furniture was saved. It is thought the fire originated from the electric wires to the organ. The loss is estimated at $20,000, partially covered by insurance.

A CORRECTION

The C
with M
March 5t

John
February
had atte
to his o
Greenbr
snow sto

---

THE POCAHONTAS TIMES

---

Entered at the Postoffice at Marlinton, W. Va., as second class matter

---

CALVIN W. PRICE, Editor.

---

THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1928

---

The Huntersville road. I found some good examples of ripple marks turned into hard red stone on the road side. The slabs of rock would do well enough for a wash board. The theory is that the sand was smooth along the beach and that in a sheltered cove the sand or mudflat was swept by wavelets so that the

the Sons
Daughters
tion in W prosperous
become.
sons who
fries, tw
glia, and had four d
and left a
the time t
out John
years old
was scoutin
waters som
in Monroe Early in mies appea

period referred to generally at B. C. At that time there was no one living here that we can definitely determine. So to bring the conversation down to the times known as A. D., I want to make some mention of a citizen who so far as I can figure out has the right to be known as the father and founder of Huntersville, and that is John Bradshaw.

The name of Bradshaw has faded out of Pocahontas county, but a large number of citizens of the name of McLaughlin, Cackley, Gwin, Hogsett and Tallman are direct descendants of the old pioneer. It is safe to say that enough descendants of this Soldier of the Revolution could be named who would far outnumber the members of the societies known as

S TIMES

at Marlin class matter

EDITOR.

H 1, 1928

d. I found ripple marks
stone on the rock would wash board.
he sand was
and that in or mudflat
so that the
of the waves.
covered the hardened into
were preserved
so that when
up, the layers
the ripple
came along
exposure to destroy the

is are preserv-
as time has old trail, these
many years ago,
led by people

the Sons of the Revolution and the Daughters of the American Revolution in West Virginia, as large and prosperous as those societies have become. John Bradshaw had four sons who removed to foreign countries, two to Missouri, one to Virginia, and one to Lewis county. He had four daughters who married here and left a host of descendants. At the time that the Revolution broke out John Bradshaw was eighteen years old. At that time he was scouting around on the western waters somewhere about Wolf Creek, in Monroe county.

Early in that war the Indian armies appeared on our western frontier, and the backwoodsmen were organized into a branch of colonial service known as rangers, but officially designated as Indian spies. It was their duty to watch the country along the Seneca trail from Monroe county to Preston county. Along this line a large number of stockade forts were built in the bloody seventies. The best men were detailed for this service. They took the usual oath of the soldier and in addition to that oath they swore not to build a fire at night no matter how cold or rainy it might be. Bradshaw said that he usually made a three or four days tour in the country lying be-

seventy age, he elegant walked
with si

Whe
ganized
commis
shaw's him a ground
from h
ings.
brick lasted
moved
ville ro
ton.

John
mense
Mill co

One
county
keep a ment a
ending
paid a
next ye
ordinar
license
time,
county
county.
tween a
an ordin ary coul

when layers
ripple along
are to
by the

reserve has
, these
rs ago,
geolo-
not to
finds.
when
ss a bit
scolded
several y that ave not
of this
ne unac-
ed seats
oly owe lameless
er taken
to, take are try
that has

along the Seneca trail from Monroe county to Preston county. Along this line a large number of stockade forts were built in the bloody seventies. The best men were detailed for this service. They took the usual oath of the soldier and in addition to that oath they swore not to build a fire at night no matter how cold or rainy it might be. Bradshaw said that he usually made a three or four days tour in the country lying between New River and Big and Little Stoney creeks, Indian Draft and Wolf Creek. That the spies traveled two in a company, and that it was his custom to scout through the woods and meet a similar detail from Burnside Fort. Bradshaw traveled out of Cook fort. The eastern border was watched in this way between the line of forts extending from the Tennessee country to northern Pennsylvania. Bradshaw went in company with James Ellis at times and on other occasions his partner was Col. Samuel Estell, of Kentucky. Each tour of duty made a circle of about thirty miles. His service was for six months each in the summers of 1776, 1777, 1778, and in 1779. In those months he engaged in no civil pursuit. The service lasted until November of each year, when it was considered that the country was safe from Indian raids on account of cold weather. If the country was not safe from Indian raids on account of cold weather, the service would have continued.

county could keep a home at the expense of the ending in the year paid a license for the next year ordinary license fee for the time, Br county could county. Between a home and an ordinary could a small meat tariff. For the charge a bit. Then pieces in the cents and of grain was twenty four 12 1 2 cent John Br Huntersville not marked but it can receive one provided for by any soldiers grave is making growing dirt place.

The old c
the bluff ju
way where i turn around
John Brads

same as when walks across a bit
and gets scolded
There are several as county that ut they have not scholars of this for some unac-
e grabbed seats
probably owe
their blameless
ave never taken
content to take
They are try water that has

H. H. Jones,
ee schools, of
West Virginia,
photograph of
in his part of ed like a giant
as found in a
the Pottsville
that is found
e Cheat River
photograph to
at of Princeton
beginning to
is county, and
them. But in reference books
Mr. Jones has act replica of a
us foot prints
in Pennsylva
record of being
and vertebrates
footed crawling
t. It is of vast g up the Penn-
name is sauro-
onte, the great
iversity of

Stoney New River and Big and Little Wolf Creek. That the spies traveled two in a company, and that it was his custom to scout through the woods and meet a similar detail from Burnside Fort. Bradshaw traveled out of Cook fort. The eastern border was watched in this way between the line of forts extending from the Tennessee country to northern Pennsylvania. Bradshaw went in company with James Ellis at times and on other occasions his partner was Col.
Samuel Estell, of Kentucky. Each tour of duty made a circle of about thirty miles. His service was for six months each in the summers of 1776, 1777, 1778, and in 1779. In those months he engaged in no civil pursuit. The service lasted until November of each year, when it was considered that the country was safe from Indian raids on account of cold weather. If the weather stayed warm, or a warm spell occurred in the winter, the thoughts of the pioneers would turn to the danger of an Indian raid and they would call it Indian summer.

At the end of 1779, Bradshaw went to the east side of the Alleghenies and married Nancy McKamie, and settled on the Bull Pasture river about ten miles below McDowell in the part of the country covered by Fort George, one of the forts of the line of forts built by Dinwiddie in the French and Indian war. Bradshaw seems to have had about a year at home. From November 1, 1779, to January 1, 1781. That was about the time that Col. Tarleton, and his dragons, chased the Virginia assembly into the mountains.

Bradshaw said county, court, being a
between a house of entary could sell spirits small measure. The tariff For a half
the charge was 12
bit. There were 12
pieces in those da-
cents and lodging of grain was 12 1
twenty four hour 12 1 2 cents. Wi
John Bradsha
Huntersville ce
not marked by but it can be
receive one of vided for by C ary soldiers,
grave is mark
growing dire
place.

The old c
the bluff ju
way where
turn around
John Bra
January
native sla
the grave
foot, bot
two stor
of the cherry tr
diameter
of great
There is
on accou

You ki
talk abou
trees th
Here is
less than
shows sig
reached it
Practice

like a giant found in a
the Pottsville
that is found
Cheat River
photograph to
of Princeton
beginning to
county, and
them. But in reference books
Mr. Jones has
it replica of a
is foot prints
in Pennsylvania
record of being
and vertebrates
rooted crawling
. It is of vast
g up the Penn-
name is sauro-
onte, the great
iversity of Cali-
of the Pennsylv
monumental work s of Geology. I
he comes nearer
d of marks that any authority I
the books. He ny simple faith that I could corrugatus but t they were another said
tes or roots
l themselves
he says they
a pleasing
very com-

er. If the weather stayed warm, or
a warm spell occurred in the winter,
the thoughts of the pioneers would
turn to the danger of an Indian raid
and they would call it Indian summer.

At the end of 1779, Bradshaw went
to the east side of the Alleghenies
and married Nancy McKamie, and
settled on the Bull Pasture river
about ten miles below McDowell in
the part of the country covered by
Fort George, one of the forts of the
line of forts built by Dinwiddie in
the French and Indian war. Brad-
shaw seems to have had about a year
at home. From November 1, 1779,
to January 1, 1781. That was about
the time that Col. Tarleton, and his
dragons, chased the Virginia assembly into the mountains until the statesmen met in Staunton, and an alarm in the night, caused the legislature to scatter in great haste at that place;

Bradshaw joined the company of Captain Thomas Hicklin, in Col.
Sampson Mathews regiment, and served an enlistment of three months from the highlands to the sea. He was in a battle at Portsmouth, with John Slaven, and a lot of other mountain men, and being discharged he came home for the summer. But along in August he was called to the colors again and again marched down from the mountains to the sea, and by the time that he got to Yorktown the colonial troops had penned up

turn around
John Br
January
native sh
the grave
foot, be two sto
of the cherry t diamete
of great
There is
on acco

You
talk abo
trees t Here is
less th
shows si reached

Fracti
Hunters
the old v
of it in p

Close b E. Craig,
county, w 1846. H
county se Presbyte
sons was promine terian
father's same d ington
ia. in gradua
were t
Pocah

diversity of Cali-
of the Pennsy!
monumental work
nts of Geology. I onte comes nearer
ind of marks that any authority I n the books. He my simple faith elt that I could
y corrugatus but that they were Another said
gulites or roots
ched themselves
Conte says they has a pleasing
t is very com-
s to follow the

like Le Conte
d to another the winter I o man's land
d the Siluri-
e the town of very beauti
ly impressed
stone. It
e specifica-
ell for the lines were raight and number of numbers.
s as any youngster
and pulls tune re-

statesmen met in Staunton, and an
alarm in the night, caused the legislature to scatter in great haste at
that place;

Bradshaw joined the company of
Captain Thomas Hicklin, in Col.
Sampson Mathews regiment, and
served an enlistment of three months
from the highlands to the sea. He
was in a battle at Portsmouth, with
John Slaven, and a lot of other
mountain men, and being discharged
he came home for the summer. But
along in August he was called to the
colors again and again marched down
from the mountains to the sea, and
by the time that he got to Yorktown
the colonial troops had penned up Lord Cornwallis and a big British army on a narrow penninsular, and there is where John Bradshaw waded in human blood shoe mouth deep.
Cornwallis surrendered to the American army there, and John Bradshaw stood in line with the other ragged colonial soldiers one morning in October. The Americans formed a double line and the Cornwallis army marched out of Yorktown between the lines and reached a place where they were required to lay down their arms. Some of the British soldiers threw their muskets down with force enough to injure the gun. Then the British marched back between the lines into Yorktown.

The next day the British prisoners were marched off to Winchester under guard and Bradshaw was one of the old

of it in Close
E. Craig
county, v
1846. F
county s Presbyte
sons wa
promin
terian
father's
same d
ington
ia. in
gradu
were Pocah
Prest

A
line
mar
chilc
mar
Ban
Moc
ried
Gla
Mc
ma

l, a very beauti
early impressed
d of stone. It the specifica-
ry well for the ng lines were
g straight and he number of
In numbers.
owers as any
he youngster isy and pulls fortune re-
man, poor
see on, which
petal falls,
ct that the
n flowers of
ity.

flowers in common to s, like the ce, and the
that I took clover. I fact that onds were
Le Conte
ed to the Oldhamia
Oldham
t of the coals in
and in lon that

October. The Americans formed a
double line and the Cornwallis army
marched out of Yorktown between
the lines and reached a place where
they were required to lay down their
arms. Some of the British soldiers
threw their muskets down with force
enough to injure the gun. Then the
British marched back between the
lines into Yorktown.

The next day the British prisoners
were marched off to Winchester under guard and Bradshaw was one of the guards, and when these prisoners were duly delivered at Winchester in the Valley, Bradshaw was discharged and came back to his home.

Soon after the Revolution, John Bradshaw moved west of the Allegheny and founded Huntersville. He got for his mountain home the plantations now owned by Sherman P.
Curry, the Amos Barlow heirs, and J.
H. Buzzard, several square miles of territory, and this included all of the site of the town of Huntersville. The Bradshaw home was placed on a bluff looking down on the beautiful waters of Knapps creek, at or near the place where Isaac Barlow lives. Bradshaw was monarch of all he surveyed,

About this time, John Bradshaw had a stroke of luck which made him one of the richest men of the mountains. A ticket that

ried
Glad
McL
mar

the Valley, Bradshaw was discharged and came back to his home.

Soon after the Revolution, John Bradshaw moved west of the Allegheny and founded Huntersville. He got for his mountain home the plantations now owned by Sherman P. Curry, the Amos Barlow heirs, and J. H. Buzzard, several square miles of territory, and this included all of the site of the town of Huntersville. The Bradshaw home was placed on a bluff looking down on the beautiful waters of Knapps creek, at or near the place where Isaac Barlow lives. Bradshaw was monarch of all he surveyed,

About this time, John Bradshaw had a stroke of luck which made him one of the richest men of the mountains. A ticket that he held in a State lottery drew him a prize of ten thousand dollars and that was an immense fortune in those days.

He was a prominent figure in Bath county and in this county after its formation. My father remembers seeing him. My father was seven years old when John Bradshaw died

---

---

T. S. McNeel F. F. McLaughlin

M. NEEL O. M. LAUGHLIN

the volu-
and have four coun-
Vir-
He
d here
. At
broke hteen
e he estern
Creek,
lan ar-
front vere or olonial
out offi
es. It
country
Monroe
Along
ockade
y seven detailed

seventy-nine years old. In his old age, he was a large portly man, with elegant manners, and fine dress, and walked with a crutch richly inlaid with silver.

When Pocahontas county was organized in the spring of 1822, the commissioners met at John Bradshaw's house, and they took from him a deed for about an acre of ground on the bluff across the lane from his house, for the county buildings. This site was accepted and a brick courthouse built on it that lasted until the county seat was moved six miles west on the Huntersville road to the new city of Marlinton.

John Bradshaw had another immense tract of land in the Dilley's Mill community.

One of the first orders of the new county court was to grant license to keep a house of private entertainment at his residence for the year ending in May, 1823. For this he paid a license of $4.50. But the

tle
Nic
T
a v cen
die
ant
not sig
gat
mo on
Job
ser
T
ros
Bra
the
at
lar
the stor
wit
are rou
be s 1

lasted until the county seat was moved six miles west on the Huntersville road to the new city of Marlington.

John Bradshaw had another immense tract of land in the Dilley's Mill community.

One of the first orders of the new county court was to grant license to keep a house of private entertainment at his residence for the year ending in May, 1823. For this he paid a license of $4.50. But the next year he was licensed to keep an ordinary at the same place for a license fee of $18.00. In the meantime, Bradshaw sat as one of the county court, being a justice of the county. The main difference between a house of entertainment and an ordinary was that that the ordinary could sell spirits and wine by the small measure. The court fixed the tariff For a half pint of whiskey the charge was 12 1 2 cents or one bit. There were plenty of half cent pieces in those days. Meals were 25 cents and lodging 12 cents. A gallon of grain was 12 1 2 cents and hay for twenty four hours for one horse was 12 1 2 cents. What price soda water?

John Bradshaw sleeps in the old county court, being a justice of the county. The main difference between a house of entertainment and an ordinary was that that the ordinary could sell spirits and wine by the small measure. The court fixed the tariff. For a half pint of whiskey the charge was 12 1 2 cents or one bit. There were plenty of half cent pieces in those days. Meals were 25 cents and lodging 12 cents. A gallon of grain was 12 1 2 cents and hay for twenty four hours for one horse was 12 1 2 cents. What price soda water?

John Bradshaw sleeps in the old Huntersville cemetery. His grave is not marked by a lettered monument but it can be located and it should receive one of the monuments provided for by Congress for Revolutionary soldiers. My father says that his grave is marked by a wild cherry tree growing directly over his last resting place.

The old cemetery is on the brow of the bluff just west of the state highway where it climbs the elevation to turn around the postoffice going east. John Bradshaw departed this life January 6, 1837. A tall unlettered native slab of rock is at the head of the grave, and a smaller one at the feet, both standing. Between the

but it can be located and it should receive one of the monuments provided for by Congress for Revolutionary soldiers. My father says that his grave is marked by a wild cherry tree growing directly over his last resting place.

The old cemetery is on the brow of the bluff just west of the state highway where it climbs the elevation to turn around the postoffice going east. John Bradshaw departed this life January 6, 1837. A tall unlettered native slab of rock is at the head of the grave, and a smaller one at the foot, both standing. Between the two stones, exactly over the center of the grave there is a large wild cherry tree, perhaps thirty inches in diameter. This tree is showing signs of great age, and is ready to fall. There is some talk of cutting it down on account of its condition.

You know there is a great deal of talk about the extreme age of forest trees that is mostly all guesswork. Here is a tree that we know to be less than a hundred years old that shows signs of old age and which has reached its full size.

Practically all of the land about Huntersville is Bradshaw land and the old veteran is there in the center of it in possession.

Close by him is the tomb of George an expected Chicago, making objects, had been Argonne a collection being given and W. married position of The general left me as a far

O

State of
At rule
of the County, February

T. S. Mc
estab
ed

vs

James V
Belle Marl
corpo McLa
Thom
Comp
honta Willia
meis porati

two stones, exactly over the center of the grave there is a large wild cherry tree, perhaps thirty inches in diameter. This tree is showing signs of great age, and is ready to fall. There is some talk of cutting it down on account of its condition.

You know there is a great deal of talk about the extreme age of forest trees that is mostly all guesswork. Here is a tree that we know to be less than a hundred years old that shows signs of old age and which has reached its full size.

Practically all of the land about Huntersville is Bradshaw land and the old veteran is there in the center of it in possession.

Close by him is the tomb of George B. Craig, a prominent citizen of this county, was born in 1801 and died in 1846. He was a merchant at the county seat. He was an elder in the Presbyterian church. One of his sons was the Rev. Dr. J. N. Craig, prominent in the Southern Presbyterian church. He was about my father's age and as boys they left the same day in company to enter Washington College at Lexington, Virginia. In the year 1850, where both graduated. So far as I know these were the first college graduates from Pocahontas county, and both became

State of
At rul
of the County,
Februar

T. S. Mc
estat
ed
vs

James V
Belle Marl
corpo McLa
Thom
Comp
honta Willi
mers
porath & Pire
McC
tee, C
Adk
M. D ered
son

The said A
said A
real e
Wils
his d
day

reached its full size.

Practically all of the land about Huntersville is Bradshaw land and the old veteran is there in the center of it in possession,

Close by him is the tomb of George E. Craig, a prominent citizen of this county, was born in 1801 and died in 1846. He was a merchant at the county seat. He was an elder in the Presbyterian church. One of his sons was the Rev. Dr. J. N. Craig, prominent in the Southern Presbyterian church. He was about my father's age and as boys they left the same day in company to enter Washington College at Lexington, Virginia, in the year 1850, where both graduated. So far as I know these were the first college graduates from Pocahontas county, and both became Presbyterian ministers.

A great many persons trace their line to John Bradshaw through the marriage of six of his granddaughters children of William Bradshaw. Nancy married Isaac Hartman of Green Bank, Mary Jane married Alexander Moore, of Stony Creek, Senilda married Washington Nottingham, of Glade Hill, Huldah, married John A. McLaughlin, of Huntersville, Martha married Beverly Waugh, of the Lit-

corpo
McLa
Thoma
Compa
hontas William
meis an
poration
& Pifer McCint
tee, Geo
Adkison
E. Buck
credito
son Wi

The ob
suit is to said Adm
real estat
Wilson d
his debts
day cam
and upon
by affid
Anna B
Ward
are non
Virgin
appear
the da
and d
their

A. P.

old
with
and laid
s or-
the Brad-
from re of
lane
ould-
and a
that was nters arlin-
r im-
lley's
e new ense to ertain-
e year
this he ut the
keep an
for a

the Levels, and Matilda married Nicholas Linger of Lewis county.

There would be no trouble to form a very numerous society of the descendants of this Revolutionary soldier. And a reunion of his descendants on some summer day at the noted Curry arch just above and in sight of his grave would be notable gathering. It would make a grand monument for a tablet to be placed on this great arch with the name of John Bradshaw and the dates of his service in the war for independence.

The traveller on the Huntersville road can locate the tomb of John Bradshaw from the road as he crosses the bridge leading into Huntersville at George Ginger's residence. It is a large wild cherry tree on the brow of
the terrace back of A. B. McComb's store. I went there the other day with James A. Reed and as he looked around at the beautiful valley surrounded by the numerous mountains, he said: "All Bradshaw land!"

I then came on my way home and stopped at the mouth of the nameless little run on J. H. Buzzard's place there are millions of small washed down from

Bradshaw from the tomb of John
the bridge leading into Huntersville
at George Ginger's residence. It is a
large wild cherry tree on the brow of
the terrace back of A. B. McComb's
store. I went there the other day
with James A. Reed and as he looked
around at the beautiful valley surrounded by the numerous mountains,
he said: "All Bradshaw land!"

I then came on my way home and
stopped at the mouth of the nameless
little run on J. H. Buzzard's place where there are millions of small stones, the talus washed down from the hills above, and I stopped to take my daily breath of fresh air, and keep on with my continuing hunt for a perfect trilobite, which will probably be the millioneth stone I turn over.

As I scanned the gravel strewn stream beds, a young fellow came walking the road, and I hailed him and told him that I would be driving into town in a few minutes and he came and looked for specimens. He showed so much interest and intelligence in the work, that I asked him if he had had any experience in the business. He said he had worked on an expedition from the University of Chicago, in South America, for years, in the collection of natural history and keep on with my continuing hunt for a perfect trilobite, which will probably be the millionth stone I turn over.

As I scanned the gravel strewn stream beds, a young fellow came walking the road, and I hailed him and told him that I would be driving into town in a few minutes and he came and looked for specimens. He showed so much interest and intelligence in the work, that I asked him if he had had any experience in the business. He said he had worked on an expedition from the University of Chicago, in South America, for years, making collections of natural history objects. And in addition to that he had enlisted and served in the Argonne in the world war. He was a collector himself, his attention being given to numismatics, stamps, and World War relics. He was unmarried. He was looking for a position on a farm. He was farm raised. The gentleman of three continents left me to make application for a job as a farm hand.

Order of Publication

State of West Virginia
At rules held in the Clerk's office Court of Pocahontas
the 6th day of

result to nt eggs ys. The l every Do not they pre- o heavily not feed hey are re that remov- with a ide and h inch ou have eld the ast 30 coops every o your coop they pull e al- r at ight icks fter can in visously grown alfalfa or some other egume."

SCHOOL REPORTS

Bruffeys Creek school, fifth month. Upper grades, perfect: Irene Bruffey, Mildred Wimer, Neil Kinnison, Niel Tharp, Faithful; Edith Mitchell, Mary and Eula Smith, Dick and Neal Anderson, Dale and Wirt Kinnison, Foster Sizemore. Lower grades: Hazel and Marvin Brock, Billy Williams, Alfred Hull, Lebeatrice Kinnison, Patrick McNulty.

County Agent, J. Haynes Miller visited our school February 1st, and gave us a very interesting talk on 4-H Club work. The boys and girls enjoyed hearing him. The club now has twentyone members.

Raywood school, fifth month, advanced grades, Cathleen Vaughan, teacher. Perfect: Holland Sprouse, John Friel, Charles Malcom, Domenick Circosta, Ernest White, Lewis Lyle, Mary F. Malcom, Marie Dickson, Della Gum, Valeria Frazee. Intermediate grades, Jean Pritchard, teacher. Perfect: Carl Conley, Jimmie C...

The club now has twentyone members.

Raywood school, fifth month, advanced grades, Cathleen Vaughan, teacher. Perfect: Holland Sprouse, John Friel, Charles Malcom, Domenick Circosta, Ernest White, Lewis Lyle, Mary F. Malcom. Marie Dickson, Della Gum, Valeria Frazee. Intermediate grades, Jean Pritchard, teacher. Perfect: Carl Conley, Jimmie Circosta, Hugh Cook, Clarence Curry, Frances Frazee, Robert Friel, Guy King, Arlie and Leonard Long, William Plyler, Conard Snyder LeRoy and Quintin Sprouse, Elmer Woiverton, Catherine Alberts, Mella, Rosa and Stella Circosta, Leona Long Olive Long, Lizzie and Maudie Mullenax, Gaynelle White. Primary grades, Thelma Hedrick, teacher. Catherine Conley, Gladys Curry, Thelma Cook, Louise Friel, Monna Long, Daisy Plyler Grady and Gordon Alderman, Clarence and Harry Lyle, Glen Mullenax, Raymond Sutton, Chester Loudermilk.

J. Haynes Miller visited our school last Monday and gave an interesting talk. "The Wills" 4-H Club have Thelma Cook, Louise Friel, Monna Long, Daisy Plyler Grady and Gordon Alderman, Clarence and Harry Lyle, Glen Mullenax, Raymond Sutton, Chester Loudermilk.

J. Haynes Miller visited our school last Monday and gave an interesting talk. "The Wills" 4-H Club have started their work and are getting along nicely. Our school has entered 100 percent in Reading Circle work this year. A good sum of money has been raised to buy reading circle and supplementary books.

Miss Hedrick, one of our teachers, visited her home last week end.

Miss Pritchard, another teacher, is sick. Glen Friel has been teaching for her.

McNeer Kerr has returned home from the Charlottesville Hospital, where he underwent a very serious operation.

Mrs. Nannie Sutton has returned from a Huntington hospital where she had been for medical treatment.